

Intellectual Property: Copyrights

Watch the video using the link below and do all the tasks

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Tux0Xc589Ps>

(0:13) Copyright is the right to stop others from _____, _____, or _____, or _____ your creative work.

(0:21) Can a code be copyrighted?

(0:28) Tick the examples that can be copyrighted mentioned by the speaker:

music

videograms

published editions of works

films

industrial articles

broadcasts

works of art

dramatic works

ideas novels

literary works

(0:32) How can you protect your copyrights?

(0:49) can't / unless / you/ You/ copyright/ anyone/ for/ have/ sue/ infringement/ registered (copyright).

(0:53) What are statutory damages (give the Russian equivalent)?

(1:09) What is copyrightable (give the definition in English)?

(1:15) What is NOT copyrightable?

Expression: a mere sweat _____

Translation: _____

Meaning: _____

Give the example (any you can think of):

(1:27) How long is the term (duration) of copyright?

to lengthen the term

to extend the term

(1:49) Who are the primary beneficiaries of copyright mentioned by the speaker?

(2:13) Is copyright infringement and patent infringement similar OR different? Explain.

(2:21) Copyright infringement is:

(2:30) It is NOT copyright infringement:

(2:41) Remember: copyright only covers the _____, not the underlying

_____.

(2:55) What is one of the powerful defenses TO copyright infringement?

(3:06) What is "fair use"?

a draft (of work)

copyright infringement allegation

(3:42) Why is it important to keep drafts?

(3:56) Remember: copying requires actual _____. It isn't _____ that something is _____.

(4:01) Summarise: a good defense TO the copyright infringement allegations is

(4:16) Finish watching the video and learn about the "open source code".

What should be taken into consideration?

What are open code source licensing terms?
